

German Major Found Dead

COLOGNE, West Germany, Jan. 6 (Reuters)—Maj. Rolf Schiller was found dead at his home here today, apparently after having committed suicide with an overdose of sleeping reported. The death of the 35-year-old air force major, who worked in the administration of the nearby Wahn Luftwaffe Base, brought to 10 the number of suicides by West German Government officials and high-ranking officers in the last five months.