

As he continued to recover at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Senator John C. Stennis approved a police composite sketch of the man he said had shot him during a robbery attempt outside the Senator's Washington home on Jan. 30. The sketch approved by the Mississippi Democrat depicts the assailant as black, in his early 20's, taller than 6 feet, about 190 pounds, with close-cropped hair.