Bombings at Meeting Site

Quito, Ecuador Crucial OAS Meeting on Cuba Sanctions

States. government of Premier Fidel Castro in 1964 by the Organization of American tions imposed on the Cuban nomic and political sanccide whether to lift the ecomeeting here today to deministers begin a five-day The hemisphere foreign of the movement to return of Costa Rica, both leaders of Mexico and Gonzalo Facio -including Emilio Rabassa Several foreign ministers timism that the necessary two-thirds majority, or 14 votes, will be obtained.

ed governments — are listed as irrevocable oponents of any conciliatory gesture to right-wing military-dominatthe Castro government. Paraguay - all of them Only Chile, Uruguay and Even the United States, which led the movement ten considered sure to cast a years ago to quarantine the Havana government, is not

Cuba to the Latin American negative vote. fold - have expressed op-continued isolation of Cuba.

tion of fears that the Cubans is due partly to the evaporatoward the Havana regime countries in the hemisphere. are a subversive threat to The turnabout in attitude

The Chileans, who have can diplomats. There is no evidence that the United cided nations to support the States is exerting behindthe-scenes pressure on unde-According to Latin Americonference.

reports of possible terrorist attacks by advocates or opponents of the sanctions against Cuba. tightened security here amid Police and troops have terday near the headquar-One damaged the Bolivian ters for the OAS meeting. Two bombs exploded yes-anti-Communist exiles from Miami to address the OAS gime in the hemisphere, have invited a number of opponents of the Havana rebecome the most vociferous embassy and injured a porter and a small girl. The cultural center. other damaged the Brazilian

Cuba. economic blockade against are cool toward lifting the Both Bolivia and Brazil nomic ties with Cuba. Argentina, Peru, Mexico, Panama, Trinidad and Tostored diplomatic and ecobago, Jamaica and Barbados — have already re-Seven OAS members - spokesman warned that if A Costa Rican government > would soon rescind the santhe effort to lift the blockade tails, several more countries

San Francisco Chronicle 19

* Fri., Nov. 8, 1974

New York Times

citions on their own.

Canada Nurses Dutch Jail for

Haarlem, Holland

Two Canadian nurses re-ceived jail terms yesterday after being convicted of possessing hashish.

months Both were sentenced to six in district court