

Associated Press

President Ford accepts the ship's wheel from Capt. Charles Miller, skipper of the American merchant vessel Mayaguez, which was seized by Cambodia May 12 in the Gulf of Siam and recaptured three days later after Mr. Ford sent in troops and planes. Miller told Mr. Ford the rescue planes "looked like angels" to him.