

SF Examiner SEP 14 1975

Rockefeller says

FBI needs help

NORMAN, Okla. — Vice President Rockefeller said yesterday that attempts against President Ford's life show a need for tougher domestic intelligence operations.

Rockefeller told an airport news conference in Oklahoma City that the FBI and other agencies that are authorized to gather intelligence in this country need more help.

Longe

SEP 14 1975, filed FBI-II.