Kissinger Given Warning in China

Peking

Chinese Foreign Minister Chiao Kuan-hua welcomed U.S. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger last night with a thinly-veiled warning on the dangers of detente with the Soviet Union, a warning China has not given directly and publicly before.... The Chinese regularly criticize detente, but they never before have used the occasion of a Kissinger visit to China to attack detente by name and in public....

From the time Kissinger's aircraft touched down in Capital Airport, both sides took great pains in words and deeds to demonstrate friendship and mutual satisfaction.
