Tendedera, Diego Gonzales Cuban refugee journalist, recently Miami correspondent for El Tiempo, New York Spanish-language paper. Wrote story in National Enquirer about the murder in Miami 2/22/67 of Eladio Cerefino del Valle, his friend. Del Valle was former Batista congressman who had employed David Ferrie to fly bombing raids into Cuba until feds confiscated del Valle's plane in 1961. Del Valle murdered 2/22/67, the same day Ferrie died, and three days after he had been questioned by a Garrison investigator and reportedly agreed to help. Tendedera says his own life has been threatened and he has gone into hiding in New York with his family. National Enquirer, 4/30/67

Subpoenaed as material witness, guaranteed immunity. His 1963 comments on Oswald quoted. New Orleans States-Item, 1/9/68.

Says he never saw Oswald again after 1959 when he left Marines. District Attorney's office says at least six people saw him with Oswald during summer of 1963. . New Orleans States-Item, 1/10/68

Gives up extradition fight, says he'll appear 2/8 to testify. Says Oswald's know;ledge of U2s was generally at El Toro and that Oswald learned Russian from a book and a friend. New Orleans States-Item, 2/23/68

Text of District Attorney's press release when Thornley charged with perjury. Outlines in detail District Attorney's theory of Thornley's role in setting Oswald up as decoy and eventually as the patsy in the assassination. Makes much of the point that Thornley is the ONLY one of Oswald's Marine contemporaries who indicates he had any Communist leanings. Explains in some detail how the Warren Commission avoided the plot angle by making Oswald one lone Communist nut. Text from District Attorney 's office. 2/21/68

Rev. Raymond Broshears says in his newsletter that it was Thornley's picture of which Oswald's head was superimposed on the cover of LIFE "Kerry had the little spider like hinds and arms and narrow hips, not Oswald, just ask his wife." The Light of Understanding, V. 2 No. 11, 8/68

Account of how Weisberg asked Fred Newcomb in Sherman Oaks to retouch Thornley's photo for comparison with that of Oswald. Letter typed on District Attorney's stationery. Thornley's attorney Arnold Levine charges District Attorney wants to use photos to support theory that Thornley passed as Oswald in New Orleans. Alcock denies any intention of using such photos. Tampa Times, 11/27/68

Weisberg confirms he wrote the letter and says District Attorney had nothing to do with it. Says Times is being used as a dupe "in a propaganda campaign being waged against myself and Mr. Garrison." Tampa Times, 11/28/68

Following Shaw acquittal 3/1, Thornley demands trial and clearance on his perjury charge, although he agrees with District Attorney that a competent investigation would show Oswald did not assassinate JFK. AP A034, 3/4/69

Thornley, now 31 and moved to Atlanta from Tampa, says his ACLU attorneys will ask dismissal of the perjury charge against him or, failing that, a delay in the trial. . New Orleans States-Item, 2/13/70

Judge Schulingkamp sets 3/16 for hearing. Thornley's attorney, Edward Balwin moves that Thornley's testimony was not relevant to District Attorney's probe and that he was denied right to counsel before grand jury. New Orleans States-Item, 2/16/70

Tiempo, El

New York Spanish language daily 2/28/67 carried copyrighted story about a Cuban named Pascual Enrique Ruedolo Gongora who told the FBI 11/19/63 Premier Castro had sent six or eight teams of assassins to the United States to kill JFK. Ruedolo Gongora, 45, told authorities Castro had decided to do away with JFK before "Kennedy did away with him. Claimed he had written threatening letters to JFK, RFK and had been investigated by the Secret Service. Questioned by the Immigration Service, he was found to be carrying several knives. Article said Ruedolo had been deported to Madrid but was assumed to be back in Cuba now. However Immigration did deport him to Madrid but the Spanish sent him back in 2/64. He was admitted to Creedmore State Hospital in Queens later that month. San Francisco Examiner UPI, 3/2/67

El Tiempo's Miami correspondent, Diego Gonzales Tendedera, goes into hiding with family after reporting from Miami on murder of Eladio Cerefino del Valle, former Batista congressman and employer of David Ferrie. Del Valle murdered three days after contacted by a Garrison investigator and agreed to help, and on same day Ferrie died, 2/22/67. Tendedera says he thinks both Ferrie and del Valle died because they knew too much about the JFK assassination.

Criminal Sheriff Louis Heyd, Jr. had no comment other than to say Torres wasn't sick. LA Times, Nelson and Chriss, 2/24/67

Torres had provided Garrison with sworn depositions regarding a meeting he had witnessed among Shaw, Sergio Archacha Smith, Emilio Santana and other Cuban exiles on the 1300 block of Dauphine Street -- the same block as Shaw's residence. Torres also gave Garrison information concerning a meeting between Jack Ruby and Santana. Now, in an interview taped in the jail, Torres was claiming that Garrison had offered him his freedom, $75 worth of heroin, and a vacation in Florida in exchange for his incriminating testimony. (In the NBC program). WIN magazine, 2/1/69

Gene Roberts, New York Times says Garrison tried to bribe both Torres and John Cancler into cooperating in his probe. Says Torres was offered his freedom, an ounce of heroin and a vacation in Florida. New Orleans States-Item months earlier had found him nervous and unwilling to talk. Cast similar doubt on Roberts claim re: John Cancler. New Orleans States-Item, 6/12/67 New York Times, 6/12/67
