Testifying as state witness, retired FBI agent Regis Kennedy testifies he already was investigating the JFK assassination and looking for Clay Bertrand when Dean Andrews first called him 11/25/63 from the hospital. At first said he had no authority to answer this question, but did so after the U.S. Attorney who accompanied him, Harry Connick, reportedly telephoned Washington to get permission for him to answer. New Orleans States-Item [proceedings] 2/17/69

Edward Jay Epstein mentions reference "by a source in Garrison's office" to a library card taken out under the name Clay Bertrand and bearing Clay Shaw's former business address.

This card hardly qualified as controvertible evidence. For one thing, the card turned up well after Shaw was arrested, and, for some reason, bore no date of issuance or expiration. For another, the signature on the card was definitely not in Clay Shaw's hand -- a fact Garrison's own staff confirmed." New Yorker, p. 75, Edward Jay Epstein 7/13/69

Bethell, Tom

British school teacher who came to New Orleans to study jazz, got interested in Garrison case, volunteered and was sent by Garrison to study National Archives where he reports CIA hiding 51 documents on assassination, including 29 he thinks vital to Garrison case. They include reports on Oswald's access to information on the U2 spy plane (possibly at Atsugi), a CIA report to the State Department on Oswald dated 10/10/63, information on Ruby and associates, Oswald's activities in Mexico, the de Mohrenschildts, etc. New Orleans States-Item 7/1/67

Brawner, Eddie

Described by Nancy Perrin Rich, Warren Commission witness, as a close friend of her late former husband, Robert Perrin. Jones and Boxley found Brawner in Dallas (FBI had avoided finding him in 1963-4) who steered them to another man named Youngblood. Jones says this Youngblood was neither Rufus of Secret Service fame nor a CIA pilot and Cuban soldier of fortune as some critics have speculated. Midlothian Mirror 1/2/69

Brener, Milton

Appears 7/17/67 as attorney both for John Cancler and Layton Martens. Judge Schulingkamp denied Cancler a new trial and refused to set aside a multiple offender charge against him, charging him with being a fourth offender. Brener stipulated, however, that Cancler was the man named in the bill. Filed notice of appeal to the state Supreme Court. New Orleans States-Item 7/17/67

Obtains subpoenae for District Attorney, entire grand jury, Alcock, Robertson, Gurvich and three members of parish jury commission to appear "when the (Sheridan) hearing date is set." New Orleans States-Item 7/21/67

Cancler sentenced to 18 years as multiple offender. New Orleans States-Item 7/28/67

Says he'll take Sheridan's case to federal court, hints to U.S. Supreme Court. New Orleans States-Item 8/8/67

Judge Schulingkamp denies Brener's motions for oyer (to see evidence) and a bill of particulars in the perjury indictment against Layton Martens. Brener filed a bill of exceptions to the ruling and says he'll next file a motion to quash. New Orleans States-Item 8/18/67

Argues before Federal District Judge Alvin B. Rubin that injunction should be granted against Walter Sheridan testifying before grand jury. Says Sheridan would be without legal counsel and could harm himself. Assistant District Attorney Alcock says Brener and Sheridan just trying to short circuit state procedures. Judge takes under advisement. New Orleans States-Item 8/21/67

Files 3 motions in district court (which one not specified) to 1, quash the charge against Sheridan; 2, to recuse Garrison because of his personal spite against Sheridan, and 3, to hold preliminary examination to determine whether Sheridan should be tried; Brener claims "no credible evidence of his guilt." New Orleans States-Item 8/31/67

Appears as attorney for the MCC; takes motion to state supreme court after Judge Braniff refuses to order Judge O'Hara to recuse himself as advisor to the grand jury. New Orleans States-Item 9/28/67

State Supreme Court takes under advisement the contempt citation against Kohn. Brener argues it should be reversed so Kohn won't have a third such citation on his record. District Attorney's office argues it's moot since grand jury has gone out of existence and all matters it considered are legally dead. New Orleans States-Item 3/27/68

"The Garrison Case," by Milton Brener, received 12/30/69 and published probably earlier that month.

Expensively, well printed. Very smoothly written, probably with professional help, with legalisms kept to a minimum where possible; very carefully done, with expert omissions in many areas. Appears designed to persuade by subtle suggestion anyone not well informed that Garrison is mad, power hungry and gifted with an almost mystic influence over the sycophantic and the ignorant.

Lands his plane, which is also carrying his three children, after it collides during landing approach with another plane piloted by Louis Butz which goes into a spin and Butz falls out at 400 feet and is killed.
