

Dale, William A.

Toronto teacher murdered in motel cabin in New Orleans New Orleans States-Item, 12/30/67

Probe pushed. Dale's companion identified as Keith Winterhoultter, 32, professor at Laurentian University in Sudbury, Canada. Police call Winterhoultter cooperative, say he and Dale came to New Orleans together and went separate ways that night because Dale-interested in classical music and Winterhoultter wanted to make some jazz spots. New Orleans States-Item, 1/2/68

Dallas

The Dallas district attorney and police department have been coldly uncooperative. (With Garrison). Sunday Ramparts, William Turner, 3/12-26/67

Key Dallas investigators (Wade and Curry) don't believe Garrison's claim that Oswald never fired a shot. AP Peggy Simpson, 5/26/67 B83 1228acd

Dalzell, William

Subpoenaed 6/30/67 but not located by stakeout at Roosevelt Hotel. Described as international petroleum engineer, now advisor to Ethiopian government. Named as incorporator of anti-Castro Friends of Democratic Cuba in 1961 along with Guy Banister, former New Orleans Attorney Grady C. Durham and William Klein, brother of an attorney Burton Klein?) now representing one of the figures (Beauboeuf?) in the Garrison probe. Sheriff's deputy went hunting Dalzell at Steven Plotkin's office when couldn't find him at hotel. Plotkin is Novel's attorney. New Orleans States-Item, 6/30/67

Subpoena withdrawn after District Attorney's office assumed he could be located and talked to during the weekend. New Orleans States-Item, 7/1/67

Subpoenaed for grand jury for 9/24/67. Address: 528 Dauphine St., New Orleans States-Item, 9/18/67

Subpoenaed for grand jury along with LIFE writer David Chandler and MCC officials. New Orleans States-Item 9/27/67

Testifies before grand Jury, says after Ward only that he was called in connection with the background of the JFK assassination. After the session, District Attorney said there would no further arrests until after conclusion of the Shaw trial. (No apparent connection) 11/3/67, New Orleans States-Item

Knew Ferrie and Arcacha Smith, was still another of the Banister coterie of sleuths. To a New Orleans State-Item reporter he admitted he was CIA. Ramparts, 1/68, p. 53, William W. Turner

Daniels, William Hawk

Baton Rouge Municipal Judge. Appeared before federal grand jury investigating charges of a conspiracy to spring Hoffa. Said he had been a witness at Hoffa's 1964 jury tampering trial. New Orleans States-Item, 9/27/67

AP story on federal grand jury hearing in Nashville, says Daniels told New Orleans TV man in 9/68 that when he was Pitcher's assistant he was offered $250,000 to change his own testimony in the Hoffa case. New Orleans States-Item, 10/4/68

Dann, Sol

Ruby family attorney.

Said of Garrison investigation, "It looks as though we may not yet be through with the most fantastic of events (the assassination). If they have any evidence, or if any indictments are to be issued, they will not indict a dead man. So that leaves Jack Ruby out. I wish then all the success in the world." AP 838aes, 2/18/67

In San Diego, Melvin Belli said he is convinced that the Warren Commission Report tells the complete story of the Kennedy assassination and that tie investigation in New Orleans is not going to show that Ruby knew Oswald. AP C27GO 556 pps, 2/19/67

Telegraphed Garrison urging him to arrange a federal or state grand jury probe of Garrison's charges. Sent similar wire to Louisiana Attorney General Jack P. F. Gremillion, also requesting him to investigate "Jim Garrison's information or evidence." AP A51 414aes 2/21/67

Text of wire above alludes to "misprision or conspiracy", defined in story as "neglect or wrong performance of official duty or concealment of treason or felony by one not guilty ..." AP A72DT 554pes, 2/20/67

Writes letters to members of American and Louisiana Bar Associations urging disbarment of Garrison for improper conduct and investigation of all lawyers criticizing Warren Report and of judges ruling on anything stemming from the assassination. Garrison replies Dann is "well aware of the total involvement of Jack Ruby in the assassination." AP ?y? B? O 1046p d NOSI

Garrison replies in detail to Dann's charges, in ABC "Issues and Answers" 5/28/7 (see text). "... what it all adds up to is this: he would love to see me disbarred because he knows I'm going to connect Ruby with a conspiracy, and that's going to be very easy to do."

Davis, Eugene C.

Subpoenaed for grand jury 6/28/67. Address, 704 Iberville, New Orleans. New Orleans States-Item, 6/28/67

(On 6/19/67 NBC program Frank Mc Gee had said: "Clay or Clem Bertrand does exist. An NBC reporter has seen him. Clem Bertrand is not his real name. It is a pseudonym used by a homosexual in New Orleans. For his own protection we will not disclose the real name of the man known as Clem Bertrand. His real name has been given to the Department of Justice. He is not Clay Shaw." AP A08S 950ped 6/19/66)

Described as French Quarter bar owner.

Andrews identifies Bertrand as Eugene C. Davis. Says Shaw "never was, and never will be" Clay Bertrand. Davis has no comment, but his attorney. G. Wray Gill, says Davis never has used the name Clay Bertrand. AP A127nu 1056pcd 6/28/67

"The recent statements by Andrews identifying me as Clay Bertrand are utterly and completely false and malicious and damnable. They are lies without justification." Davis submits sworn statement to grand jury in addition to Garrison's office. Said he had known Andrews for 15 years, since Andrews was a law student and would study in his bar, had spoken with him many times since then, that Andrews knows him, knows his voice, and knows he is not Bertrand.

A Subpoena instanter was issued for Andrews immediately after Davis testified. New Orleans States-Item 6/29/67

Davis, William Hardy Former employee of Maryland National Insurance Co., one of three affiants who filed affidavits with District Attorney accusing Charles Ward of taking bribes to hold off collecting bond forfeitures. New Orleans States-Item, 6/19/69

Extensive details of Davis affidavit, specifying his firm got worried that the money they were paying Ward either didn't reach him or that he was unable to carry out his part of the bargain. At one point had attorney Milton Masinter followed, which Mrs. Davis denied. Identified as president of Century Surety Underwriters of Indiana, agents in Louisiana for Maryland National Insurance Co. New Orleans States-Item, 6/26/69

Davis, Doris (Mrs. William Hardy Davis) Wife of the former president of Century Surety Underwriters of Indiana and identifies herself as manager; of the Bail Bonding Center, 540 S. Broad, New Orleans. Testifies she sent $2,500 monthly to Charles Ward as a bribe to slow down demands for payment of bail forfeiture bonds, but denies she had the errand boy tailed to see whether he delivered it (contradicts her husband in this). New Orleans States-Item, 6/26/69

DeBrueys, Warren 4827 Michoud Boulevard.
"Former FBI agent," New Orleans, who with Regis Kennedy subpoenaed by grand jury. Story unsays whether he and/or his attorney appeared. Kennedy, who still an agent, represented by U.S. Attorney. Louis LaCour, who said Kennedy had been ordered by U.S. Attorney. Ramsey Clark not to testify. No further mention of deBrueys in story except background that he and Kennedy interviewed several people in New Orleans about Oswald in 1963, and that Cuban sources there said they remember both men attended meetings of anti-Castro groups organized in 1961. AP 5/10/67

Did not appear. District Attorney's office says subpoena had not been served. (no indication of whereabouts) New York Times, 5/11/67

Address, 4827 Michoud Blvd, New Orleans. "Reported out of town until later this month." New Orleans States-Item, 5/6/67

"Ordered to report (to the grand jury) were Regis Kennedy, the FBI man who questioned ... David Ferrie, and Warren deBrueys ... whose name appears frequently on records of the assassination investigation in the National Archives. Agents of the CIA are seldom identified as such by the federal government." Ross Yockey byliner. New Orleans States-Item, 5/8/67

"Cuban sources at New Orleans said they remembered both Kennedy and DeBrueys attending meetings of anti-Castro groups organized to fight the Island's Communist regime in 1961" New Orleans States-Item, 5/10/67

DeBrueys appears to be the New Orleans FBI man, who, with a Dallas agent, were subjected to disciplinary transfer prior to 5/1/64, when the New Orleans agent left the service rather than accept transfer to Springfield, IL. He left the service 5/1 and went to work for the Southern Research Co. in New Orleans the same day as an investigator. He had been assigned to the Oswald case while Oswald lived in New Orleans. Had more than 20 years service. Dallas Times-Herald, 9/29/64

The Dallas agent was Ken Howe, another more than 20-year veteran, who was in charge of the subversive desk under whom Hosty worked. Howe was demoted to an investigative job and to a salary $1,000 lower. Hosty was suspended for 30 days and transferred to Kansas City. Dallas Times-Herald, 10/14/64

Howe also transferred to Seattle, see above.

Later, Dallas agents Bob Barrett and Ivan Lee were transferred to Birmingham, AL, and Columbia, SC, respectively, for releasing report to Dallas police. Dallas Times-Herald, 7/15/66

Private investigator told by Orest Pena he had attended meetings including Arcacha Smith, Ferrie and DeBrueys. Pena set upon, beaten, after having made arrangement -- by letter -- to speak by phone with investigator. New Orleans,

Moved before Judge Haggerty to have James Phelan submit pre-trial testimony, in Shaw case. Judge denied the motion after District Attorney's office filed exceptions claiming no provision under Louisiana law for such testimony unless affiant in jail. Assistant District Attorney Sciambra said Phelan could, however, testify before grand jury and offered to meet him there to settle their dispute about Russo testimony. In arguing for Phelan pre-trial testimony, Dymond contended Phelan might be travelling at the time of the trial and cited difficulty state is having trying to get Novel and McMaines extradited. "The state probably will never get them back," Dymond said. New Orleans States-Item, 5/3/67
