Isaacs, Chuck

This name appears in Ruby's notebook, following by "American Airlines," but not clear whether this notation has any connection with the name. (Armstrong Exhibit 5309-A, XIX, p. 77)

Isaacs, Harold

Located by Garrison investigator in Texas, acknowledges he had a 1958 Ford which was crushed in a wrecking yard. Is this the Isaacs referred to by the two men in Winnipeg whom Richard Giesbrecht overheard discussing 2/13, 1964, saying that a man named Hoffman or Hockman would relieve Isaacs and destroy his 1958 automobile? There is a classified file captioned "Harold Isaacs." Giesbrecht identified a photo of Ferrie as one of the two men he heard talking. Ramparts, 1/68, p. 66, William. W. Turner.

Entry into Congressional Record by Rep. John R. Rarick, D-LA, reproducing article from Herald of Freedom giving extreme right-wing view of the career of Harold R. Isaacs, the author and Far Eastern expert. 11/21/67

Ferrie and man with Latin accent, overheard at Winnipeg Airport 2/13/64, talked of Isaacs' (No first name given) and a Hoffman or Hockman who would relieve him and destroy his 1958 car. Winnipeg Free Press, 3/17/67, McLeans magazine (copy of article), 11/67

Isaacs, Martin

Presumed to be the Mr. Isaacs found in Oswald's notebook (XVI, p. 61) referring to Martin Isaacs of the New York City Welfare Department. (VIII, p. 324).

Itek Corporation

Lexington, MA photo lab which supplied study cited by UPI as destroying theory that the Nix photo shows a gunman or gunmen on the grassy knoll. Riverside Daily Press et al, 5/19/67

See discussion of this photo by Ray Marcus, LA Free Press, 11/24/67, and their refusal to examine Moorman photo, which Marcus believes does show a human figure. "The circumstances led me to suspect that Itek had examined a strawman, that its professed 'public service' could be understood as 'government service,' from whom it received no less than sixty percent of its business." LA Free Press, 11/24/67.
