Arrests in Kennedy Case Delayed for Months, New Orleans Prosecutor Says

be withheld. This source also said one theory was that President Kennedy's assassination grew out of a plot by anti-Communist forces to kill Premier Fidel Castro of Cuba. According to this theory, the conspirators planned to send Lee Harvey Oswald to Cuba to kill Premier Castro, and later decided to go after President Kennedy when Oswald was denied entry into Cuba.

Theory is Discounted.

District attorney of Jefferson parish (County) for five years, seemed surprised by the attendance of more than two score out of more than two score out of more than two score out of the five years, seemed surprised by the attendance of more than two score out of the five years, and camera-men. They came here after he local newspapers seemed unshated today. He invited out-of-town newsmen to the news conference because, he said, he felt he "owed" them one conference for coming such long distances.

When he faced the newsmen distances.

When he faced the newsmen distances.

But he barred reporters from Kennedy when Oswald was denied entry into Cuba.

Theory Is Discounted

Neither the "suspect" named by one of Mr. Garrison's employes, or the anti-Castro theory, is new, according to lawyers who served on the staff of the Warren Commission, which investigated the assassination throughout most of 1964. The commission concluded that Oswald killed President Kennedy alone and unaided.

One member of the commission of the commission condemners and unaided.

When he raced the newsmen he was new newsmen he was visibly nervous, perspect freely and extended his ference from his office to the Fontainebleu Motel so, one of his staff members said, the local reporters could not assert they had been barred from public property.

And he said that after today he would not speak about the investigation to out-of-town reporters, either, until there was a break in the case.

If a break comes, he said, he

By GENE ROBERTS

Special to The New York Times

NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb.
20—District Attorney James
Garrison, who once said he was only weeks away from making arrests in the Kennedy assassination case, revised his estimate upward today to "many months."

He charged that the delay had been caused by premature publicity from local newspapers, but maintained that "there is no question there will be arrests, charges and convictions."

Arrests, Mr. Garrison said, "probably were just a few weeks away until the disclosures by the local newspapers."

"New ORLEANS, La., Feb.
20—District Attorney James
Garrison, who once said he was only weeks away until on indicated that the man arrests in the Kennedy assassination case, revised his estimate upward today to "many months."

He charged that the delay had been caused by premature publicity from local newspapers, but maintained that "there is read of the probably were just a few weeks away until the disclosured by the local newspapers."

"Probably were just a few weeks away until the disclosured by the local newspapers."

"Now they are most certainly months away," he added.

As he has before, Mr. Garrison some on the way, and that the rederal Bureau of Investigation and accumulated a "great stack" of the machinery" for whore was also disturbed that the man his staff had he had his staff had been succeeding until the states. He said that the man his staff had he had his staff had here succeeding until the most states. He man his staff had here succeeding until the man his part that the man his staff had here accorded that the man his staff had here accorded that the man his staff had here accorded to the man him spent $8,000 since October in travel expenses to carry out the months just before the assassition indicated that the man him spent $8,000 since October in travel expenses to carry out the months just before the assassition and had not been a part of more discounted the investigation of the when episages to carry out the whore disclosured the time and travel expenses to weeks away until the disclosures by the local newspapers."

"Now they are most certainly months away," he added.

As he has before, Mr. Garrison refused in a 61-minute news conference with more than 40 out-of-town newsmen to give details of what he has said was a "plot" that culminated in the shooting of President Kennedy on Nov. 22, 1963.

However, a source within Mr. Garrison's office named a "suspect," but asked that his name be withheld. This source also said one theory was that President Kennedy's assassination weeks away until the disclosure in the floor of the suspects were officials of the suspects were officials of the calibration of a foreign power. He delined to elaborate.

Mr. Garrison, who has been district attorney of Jefferson been cautious about speaking publicly on his investigation into the Kennedy assassination.

on Saturday, Mr. Garirson had been cautious about speaking publicly on his investigation into the Kennedy assassination. Then, he quickly defended his investigation and said he expected it to result in arrests.

Mr. Garrison, who is 46 years old, has frequently made head-lines since becoming district attorney of Jefferson Parish, which embraces New Orleans. He started a clean-up campaign of what he said was prostitution and blackmail along Bourbon Street here. This touched off bitter protests from the Bour bon Street businessmen.

But he was praised by the States-Item, which said, "maybe we got us a real honest, crusading district attorney."

Mr. Garrison also tangled with eight criminal court judges, who, he charged, were acting "like the sacred cows of India" in refusing to give him funds in refusing to give him funds to carry out his investigation of Bourbon Street.

The judges sued him for defamation of character and he was ultimately fined $1,000. Mr. Garrison appealed to the United States Supreme Court and won.