Fifth Subpoena Is Issued In JFK Death Probe

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Five nothing to do with any conspirmen have pushed through the acy if one existed." thick mahogany doors into Dist.

Atty. Jim Garrison's suite of of thick mahogany doors into Dist.

Atty of the control of the offices, answering subpoenas connected with the probe of Meanwhile, one of the busi-President John F. Kennedy's nessmen handing a private fund assassination. Four have which allows Garrison to con-walked out free men. which allows Garrison to con-duct his probe in secrecy says walked out free men.

walked out free men.

Only one, Clay Shaw, was booked on a charge of conspiring to "commit the crime of murder of John F. Kennedy." Shaw is free under $10,000 bond pending preliminary hearing March 14.

Interest Continues

duct his probe in secrecy says mail and money is pouring into his office.

"I can't say how much it amounts to because I just got back in town," said Joseph M. Rault Jr., an oilman, "but we just can't get through all the mail."

Interest Continues

there would be arrests and con-called "Truth and victions as a result of his in-sequences, Inc." said he had New Orleans which he says letter. culminated in the assassination Rault said the letters numsubpoena has been issued every solicited. week day since last Wednesday when Shaw, retired man-aging director of the International Trade Mart, was arrested.

The investigation continued yesterday when Garrison subpoenaed J. B. Dauenhauer, a onetime assistant to Shaw at the old trade mart.

Dauenhauer arrived at Gar-rison's office with his lawyer, Irving Dymond, who said on leaving an hour and a half later that his client "cooperated to the utmost."

"In my opinion," said Dymond, "Mr. Dauenhauer has

Money Pours In

mail."

Worldwide interest has not Rault, who with two other slackened since Garrison vowed businessmen formed a fund Convestigation into a conspiracy in not yet received one critical

Nov. 22, 1963, in Dallas, Tex. bered in the hundreds. He This is so mainly because a added the money was un-