Garrison's Aides Said to Plan Use of Hypnosis on Witnesses

By GENE ROBERTS Special to The New York Times

NEW ORLEANS, March 10 to say that he was trying to -Investigators for District At- reach his client. torney Jim Garrison were reported today to be considering the use of hypnosis and sodium that a man named Clay Bertpentothal in an effort to jog the memory of witnesses in an expectation. Mr. Andrews once told the Federal Bureau of Investigation, then denied, then said again that a man named Clay Bertpentothal in an effort to jog the memory of witnesses in an expectation.

The source, who knows several of Mr. Garrison's investigations, said they told him that they believed that "deep hyptosis" might help witnesses remember details that would support Mr. Garrison's assertion that the death of President Kennedy was the result of a conspiracy hatched in New Orleans.

port Mr. Garrison's assertion that the death of President Kennedy was the result of a conspiracy hatched in New Orleans.—Meanwhile, The States-Item said it had learned that Mr. Garrison's staff was trying to persuade Dean Andrews Jr., a New Orleans lawyer, to submit to hypnosis, sodium pentothal furth serum) or a polygraph (He detector) test.

Test's Aims Not Given But the newspaper did not say whether the tests were to be used to jog Mr. Andrews's memory or in an effort to support his statement that he once knew Lee Harvey Oswald, the assassin of President Kennedy. The heard rumbling," said Sam Monk Zelden, Mr. Andrews's attorney, when asked if Mr. Garrison's investigators had approached his client about the tests.

"But my man," he went on, "Mr. Zelden declined to elaborate on his statement, except the Mr. Saraiff.

New Orleans business executive he has arrested but not formally charged with conspiring with Oswald and "others" to kill Mr. Kennedy.

Mr. Andrews has said through his attorney that he does not know whether Mr. Shaw and Clay Bertrand are the same person.

In another development to-day, attorneys for Mr. Shaw gained permission from a three-member panel of Criminal Court judges to enter the apartment of the late David W. Ferrie.

Mr. Garrison's office says Mr. Ferrie was a part of the conspiracy, and that he committed suicide while under investigation. But Dr. Nicholas Chetta, the Orleans Paris attorney, has ruled that Mr. Ferrie's death resulted from natural causes.

Mr. Garrison is scheduled to give details of the alleged plot on Tuesday for the first time at a preliminary hearing here before Judges Bernard J. Bagert, Malcolmn V. O'Hara and Mathate on his statement, except the Same of the Mr. Service of the Alleged Plot on Tuesday for the first time at a preliminary hearing here before Judges Bernard J. Bagert, Malcolmn V. O'Hara and Mathate on his statement, except the Same of the same person.

alleged Kennedy assassination plot.

The reports came from a source close to the investigation and, in part, from The New Orleans States-Item, the afternoon newspaper here.

The source, who knows sevices in an alleged Kennedy assassination its law office. In reaching its decision that Oswald killed President Kennedy without being a part of any conspiracy, the Warren Commission according to one of that Clay Bertrand did not extended.

Calls Bertrand an Alias

However, Mr. Garrison contends that Clay Bertrand is an alias for Clay Shaw, a retired New Orleans business executive he has arrested but not formally charged with conspiring with Oswald and "others" to kill Mr. Kennedy.