
Defense Moves Today in the 'Kennedy Plot'

New Orleans

Attorneys for businessman Clay L. Shaw, accused by District Attorney James Garrison of conspiring to kill President Kennedy in 1963, will offer new motions in the case today before a special three-judge State panel.

The panel which granted the special hearing will preside tomorrow at a preliminary hearing to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to justify putting Shaw on trial.

Shaw was the first man arrested in Garrison's investigation of the Kennedy assassination. Garrison contends that a New Orleans conspiracy culminated in the assassination in Dallas, Tex.

Associated Press
