New Orleans, March 16 (AP)—Dean Andrews Jr., an attorney who says he once handled some legal matters for Lee Harvey Oswald, ~~xx~~ appeared before the Orleans Parish grand jury today for the second time in connection with the district attorney's probe of the Kennedy assassination.

Meanwhile, Andrews was suspended as an assistant district attorney in suburban Jefferson Parish.

Andrews appeared by himself before the grand jury today. Previously he had been accompanied by an attorney.

A subpoena was also issued for Gordon Novel to appear before the grand jury. Novel, who owns the Jamaican Village, a bar on the fringe of the French ~~quarter~~ quarter, had not previously been linked with the case.

Andrews said Novel, 29, was a friend and client.

In an interview, Novel said Garrison wanted to question him about events during 1961 which involved former Cuban exile leader Sergio Arcacha.

Arcacha lived in New Orleans during 1961 and headed an anti-Castro group which had headquarters at 544 Camp Street here.

When Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin of President Kennedy was arrested here in August 1963 while distributing pro-Castro Fair Play for Cuba literature, some of the pamphlets listed the 544 Camp Street address.

The Warren Commission, however, said it could find no connection between Oswald and the address.

Garrison's aides have attempted to question Arcacha in Dallas, where he now lives. Arcacha would not submit to questioning unless Dallas authorities were present and Garrison would not agree to this.

The grand jury also questioned today a young man who told a newsman his name was Tommy Clark. Clark said he had not been subpoenaed but had been asked to appear by one of Garrison's assistants.
