

Marina: 'I Don't Know Those Men'

DALLAS — (AP) — "I never met David Ferrie, or any of the others," says Marina Oswald Porter, once wed to the man the Warren Commission declares single-handedly killed President Kennedy.

Marina, now remarried, said yesterday she never heard of the persons New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison claims conspired with Lee Harvey Oswald to assassinate Kennedy.

In June, 1965, Marina, 25, still slender and pretty, was married to Kenneth Jess Porter, then a technician for an electronics firm. They had a son in July, 1966, and moved to Greenville, 60 miles northeast of Dallas where Porter had relatives.

They returned to Dallas in late September and Porter began operating a bar and grill.
