Ex-Bar Owner New Suspect

IFK Probe Arrest

NEW ORLEANS - District Attorney Jim Garrison's office today ordered the arrest of Gordon Novel, former owner of a French Quarter bar, as a material witness in the investigation of President Kennedy's assassination.

Novel, 29, was subpoenaed to appear before the Orleans Parish (county) grand jury yesterday in connection with Garrison's probe. He did not appear and could not be found here.

Novel later turned up in Columbus, Ohio, He left there today and said he was going to Chicago.

indictment yesterday of Clay Shaw, retired business ex-ecutive, on a charge of "wil-attorney's office alleged that

GORDON NOVEL Charges "doublecross"

ANTI-CASTROITE

Novel fled New Orleans las, said he never heard of while under subpoena. It said he severed his business ties anti-Castro group here in 1961 and stated publicly that he hed no intention of returning.

In Columbus, Novel said he did not want to return to New Orleans without a guarantee of immunity from "harass- jury will "be deprived of a ment."

He was quoted as describing the Garrison in Novel owned the Jamaican vestigation as "a fraud" and Inn Bar, a lounge on North as saying he first helped the district attorney but that fringe of the French Quarter. "Garrison double-crossed the sold the property Sunday." me.

grand jury March 16. Earlier he told newsmen he thought The arrest order for Novel fully and unlawfully conspir- Garrison wanted to question der conspiracy trial of Shaw, followed the grand jury's ing" to murder Kennedy.

| Garrison wanted to question der conspiracy trial of Shaw, followed the grand jury's ing" to murder Kennedy. 1962 which are related to In an affidavit, the district Mr. Sergio Archacha Smith." Gulf Coast with Garrison's Arcacha, now living in Dal- approval.

1961.

In its affidavit, filed with criminal district court, the district attorney's office said Novel should be placed under sizeable bond or the grand most important and material witness.

Novel owned the Jamaican

In another development to-Novel appeared before the day, criminal dist. Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. was named to preside at the murweekend on the Mississippi