

Perjury Charged*New Indictment In JFK Probe

NEW ORLEANS April 6 (UPI) — Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's probe of an alleged plot to assassinate President Kennedy today brought a new indictment and arrest warrants.

Layton Martens, 24, a student at the University of Southwestern Louisiana, who once roomed with the late David W. Ferrie, was indicted by the New Orleans grand jury for perjury.

The true bill against Martens followed by one week his first appearance before the 12-man jury, which is conducting a special investigation of events leading up to the assassination.

Authorities in Terrebonne parish ordered the arrests of material witness Gordon Novel in Columbus, Ohio, and Cuban exile leader Sergio Arcacha Smith in Dallas.

BURGLARY CHARGE

Dist. Atty. Wilmore J. Broussard Jr. filed charges of simple burglary against Novel and Smith in connection with the theft of several cases of blasting caps and explosive charges from a bunker in Houma, La., in 1961.

The FBI later recovered part of the loot in wooden cases on the New Orleans docks marked: "Photo supplies for Cuba."

"Up until this time we knew that the crime had been committed involving the bunker, but we did not know who did it," said Broussard.

"Obviously this recent expose has helped us in our own case, but I have not talked with Mr. Garrison and I do not know if this munitions theft has anything to do with the assassination investigation he has under way."

DUAL WARRANTS

Broussard referred to the arrests in Dallas and Columbus last week of Smith and Novel.

Novel is free on $10,000 bond on two Garrison warrants, one naming him as a material witness in the assassination probe, the other with conspiring to steal munitions from the Houma bunker.

Smith has been arrested on the theft conspiracy charge lodged by Garrison.

In a related development yesterday, Clay L. Shaw, 54, pleaded innocent in Criminal District Court to charges that he was part of a conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy.
