

'Kennedy Plot' Suit Is Withdrawn

New Orleans

Gordon Novel withdrew his $50 million damage suit against District Attorney Jim Garrison and others yesterday rather than return here today and make a deposition in connection with the case.

Novel's attorney, Steve Plotkin, said the suit would be refiled at a later date. Under Federal law, Novel has a year from the date the alleged acts were made to renew the suit, Plotkin said.

Garrison had sought without success since March to have Novel, 29, extradited from Ohio for questioning as a material witness in the Kennedy assassination probe.
