A Notice to Examiner Readers:

On Monday, June 26th,

THE SAN FRANCISCO EXAMINER
will devote six full pages to a probing study in depth on

THE WARREN REPORT AND ITS CRITICS

This monumental project was undertaken by The Associated Press to bring light into areas of darkness. Two competent reporters worked on the report for more than six months. No other organization could have done a study of this stature.

It will find a place in the libraries of schools and colleges. It will be a valuable reference work for today's students. And those of future years.

This is not frivolous fiction. This is not casual news. This is not reading for the happy hour. This is a soul-searching study that deserves the attention of every thoughtful citizen.

The Examiner presents this comprehensive report as a public service. It should make a meaningful contribution to your knowledge of one of history's most tragic and controversial hours.
