ANDREWS CALLS 39

Governor, Probe

Thirty-nine defense witnesses have been subpensed for Dean A. Andrews Jr., scheduled to go on trial Wednesday on a perjury charge. The list includes Gov. John J. McKeithen.

Andrews also subpensed the 12-man Orleans Parish Grand Jury, District Attorney Jim Garrison, and six of his aides. Andrews' charges grew out of Garrison's probe of what he calls a New Orleans-based plot in the slaying of President John

The trial is scheduled before Judge Frank J. Shea. The list of defense witnesses follows:

Gov. McKeithen.

District Attorney Garrison. Andrew J. Sciambra, Richard V. Burnes, James L. Alcock, Robert E. Lee, Alvin V. Oser and Numa Bertel Jr., assistant district attorneys.

Albert V. Labiche, foreman of the Orleans Parish Grand Jury, and the other 11 jury members.

Williard E Robertson, Joseph M. Rault Jr. and Cecil H. Shilstone, businessmen who founded Truth and Consequences of New Orleans Inc., a private organization which has financed some of Garrison's investigation.

Jack Dempsey and Ross Yockey, New Orleans States-Item reporters who have covered the investigation.

Perry Raymond Russo, a Baton Rouge insurance man who has testified that he heard conspiracy defendant Clay L. Shaw discussing means to assassinate President Kennedy.

William Gurvich, a private investigator formerly a mainstay in the investigation, but who has since broken with Garrison.

Vernon Bundy, a former narcotics addict who has testified that he saw Shaw pass money to Lee Harvey Oswald on the lakefront.

Alberto Fowler, city director of international relations, who said he had become an investigator shortly after Garrison's investigation became public.

John Cancler, burglar who has claimed that two of Garrison's investigators asked him to put some-thing into Shaw's home. Col. Thomas Burbank, superintendent of state police.

Dr. Nicholas J. Chetta, Orleans Parish coroner.

Dr. Edmund Fatter, a hypnosis expert, who testified concerning Russo's being in a post-hypnotic state at Shaw's preliminary hearing.

Rancier Blaise Ehlinger,
former associate of fugitive witness Gordon Novel

Alvin Beauboeuf, probe figure who has claimed Garrison's men tried to bribe and intimidate him.
