NEWSMAN MUST TESTIFY

Sheridan Appeal Denied

Walter Sheridan, the television newsman accused by DA Jim Garrison of attempting to bribe one of the DA's assassination probe witnesses, today lost his bid for State Supreme Court support in his effort to avoid testifying before the Orleans Parish Grand Jury.

The appeal was made to the high court July 27 after Sheridan lost a lower court round in his legal fight to block his subpena by the grand jury.

Today, the Supreme Court said that Sheridan's "application is denied. The showing is not sufficient to warrant the exercise of our supervisory jurisdiction at this time."

SHERIDAN WAS charged with attempting to bribe state witness Perry Raymond Russo after the reporter took part in the preparation of an hourlong documentary televised by the National Broadcasting Co., which was highly critical of Baptist, said on the program that one of Garrison's wit-nesses had lied during a preliminary hearing for business-man Clay L. Shaw, accused of participating in a conspirto murder President Kennedy.

Continued from Front Page

When Cancler refused to repeat his story before the jury, he was charged with con-tempt. He asked the high court to review the contempt charge and today the court ordered the district judge and the DA's office to file returns to Cancler's petition no later than Sept. 1.

On another front in Garri son's controversial investiga-tion, Gordon Novel, the for-mer New Orleans nightclub owner who is wanted for questioning by Garrison, said today he will return volun-tarily to testify here if the DA will agree to have him questioned under hypnosis.

Garrison and his Kennedy investigation.

The NBC news department employe has entered a plea of innocent, and is free on $5,000 bond.

Sheridan was subpensed by the grand jury when he came Novel, who successfully evaded all of the DA's at-tempts to have him returned to New Orleans from Columbus, Ohio, outlined his offer in a letter to Garrison, with widely distributed copies.

ELUSIVE NOVEL, who fled New Orleans while under subpena to appear before the Orleans Parish Grand Jury back in March, said in his letter that Garrison has 72 hours in which to accept his offer to return.

The text of the novel letter is as follows:

"Now that your requested bonds of $80,000 have been reduced by law to recognizance and in the sincere interest of justice, I hereby make you my final offer to testfy be-fore your New Orleans Grand Jury on all matters pertinent or impertinent to your office and your current investigation into your alleged John F. Kennedy assassination conspiracy and its related prosecutions.

"This proposal is made solely in view of your past actions and past actions of your grand jury and the number, nature and strange back-grounds and character of the witnesses for the prosecution in the cases of the State of Louisiana vs. Dean Andrews, Esquire, and Clay Shaw, Richard Townley, Walter Sheridan, myself, et al.

"AS I DO NOT legally or othewise ever have to return to Louisiana due to your ineptness in not sending any legal or factual extradition papers to Ohio for my return in the allotted legal time of three months, and as I am sure you would like the opportunity to vindicate yourself and your office of my to-datesubstantiated charges of fraud, malicious prosecution and malfeasance of public office, I hereby submit my one and only simple term for your astute consideration:

"To wit: "I, Gordon Novel, do hereby to New Orleans last month. His lawyers have charged that the subpena is a form of harassment by Garrison's office.

THE STATE Supreme Court also took action today on a offer to voluntarily return to petition filed another probe figure, John Cancler. who refused to repeat before the grand jury charges he made on the NBC program. Cancler, a convicted burglar who calls himself John the

(Turn to Page 16, Column 1)

Louisiana to voluntarily testify before your New Orleans grand jury on any question relative to your legal or verbal charges against Lee Harvey Oswald, Clay Shaw, Da-vid Ferrie, Sergio Arcacha Smith, Dean Andrews, Layton Martens, Walter Sheridan, Richard Townley, NBC, the FBI, the CIA or myself, with the sole provision that in the interest of your often-stated desire for unperjured "legal scientific objective truth and justice," I be administered by your Dr. Esmond Fadder (sic), (with prior clinical isolation and medical supervision) the same truth serum and-or hypnosis given by your office to Mr. Perry Raymond Russo and that while under the influence of those objective, scientific veracity con-trols and while on your of-fice's polygraph, I give answer to yourself on any and all

"MR. GARRISON, it is my most earnest desire to separate this matter of a conspiracy to assassinate F. Kennedy in the United States of America into either fact or fraud, fiction and fabrication.

questions while under oath in the presence of your grand jury, and that these tests and their results be made part of the official record.

fabrication.

"As I intend to take a needed long vacation, you have 72 hours to accept or reject this final offer to testify as your most impor-tant material witness."

probe developother ments, subpenas were going out today to witnesses for both state and defense in the perjury trial of attorney Dean A. Andrews Jr., to begin here Wednesday in the court of Criminal District Judge Criminal Distr Frank J. Shea.

Attorney Sam Monk Zelden, defense counsel for Andrews, today asked for sub-penas to be sent out to two new witnesses.

The subpenas are being issued to David L. Chandler, 724 Gov. Nicholls, a reporter for Life magazine, and Sam DePino, a reporter for WVUE-TV of New Orleans.

EARLIER, IT WAS learned that the state has been blocked in its attempts to have former Warren Commission attorney Wesley J. Lei-beler return to New Orleans for the trial.

A district court judge at Brattleboro, Vt., denied the DA's request after Leibeler said he had personal business conflicting with the trial dates. Leibeler had declined to come to New Orleans voluntarily.