THE NEW YORK TIMES, I

Perjury Case in Kennedy Inquiry Goes to Jury

By MARTIN WALDRON scial to The New York Time

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 13-The first trial in the investigation by New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison of the assassination of President Ken-assassination of President Kennedy went to a jury tonight.

The five men on the jury were to decide if Dean A. Andrews Jr., a one-time attorney for accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, had committed perjury by not identifying a central figure in the assassination investigation.

Mr. Garrison, who has said that the President's murder was planned in New Orleans, charged Mr. Andrews with perjury when he refused to identify Clay L. Shaw Jr., a 54-year-old New Orleans resident, as a "mystery man" who had wanted Mr. Andrews to defend Oswald after the assassination.

The District Attorney has charged Mr. Shaw with conspiracy to commit murder saying that, using the name Clay Bertrand, be plotted with Oswald and others.

Mr. Andrews had told the Warren Commission in July, late two men were not the warren Commission in July, a couple of years," he told the Warren Commission in July, a couple of years, he told the Warren Commission in July, at the two men were not the warren Commission in July, at the two men were not the warren Commission in July, either to obtain bond or parole for them.

"I would assume that he was the one that originally sent Oswald and the gay kids, those Mexicanos, to the office because I had never seen those people ward and others.

Mr. Andrews to defend Oswald and others.

Mr. Andrews to defend Oswald and others.

Mr. Andrews was murder with the two men were not the warren Commission in July, at the two men were not the warren Commission of parole for them.

"I would assume that he was the one that originally sent Oswald and the gay kids, those Mexicanos, to the office because I had never seen those people because I had never seen those people was planted in the two men were not the warren Commission in July, at the two men were not the warren Commission in July, at the two men were not the warren Commission in July, at the two men were not the warren Commission in July, at the two men were not the warren Commission in July, at the two men were not the warren Commission in July, at the two men were wald and the gay kids, those wald and the gay kids, those wald after the assassination.

The District Attorney has charged Mr. Shaw with conspiracy to commit murder saying that, using the name Clay Bertrand, he plotted with Oswald and others.

Mr. Andrews that told the Warren Commission that Bertrand had called him the day after Mr. Kennedy was murdered and asked him to go to Dallas and defend Oswald. He told the Warren Commission and the New Orleans grand jury that he did not know Bertrand's real name. When the District Attorney had Mr. Shaw, a New Orleans grand jury that he did not know Bertrand's real name. When the District Attorney had Mr. Shaw, a New Orleans grand jury that he did not know Bertrand's real name. When the District Attorney had Mr. Shaw, a New Orleans grand jury that he did not know Bertrand's real name. When the District Attorney had Mr. Shaw, a New Orleans grand jury that the did not know Bertrand's real name. When the District Attorney had Mr. Shaw, a New Orleans grand jury that the did not know Bertrand's real name. When the District Attorney had Mr. Shaw, a New Orleans grand jury on March 16, he was subponated by the New Orleans grand jury. He still insisted that oswald went to his office. The two were also parad jury. He still insisted that oswald went to his office. The two were also parad jury. He still insisted that oswald went to his office. The two were also parad jury. He still insisted that oswald went to his office. The two were also parad jury as week and today, and a tape than the bid into the order that office. The two were also parad jury and the continued to maintain until unce 28, 1967, Mr. Shaw was held unry that he did not know Bertrand's real name. When the District Attorney, show the parad jury and the ferrand in the continued to maintain until unce 28, 1967, Mr. Shaw was held the told the Carrison investigation of the appearance by the New Orleans grand jury. He still insisted that the two were also parad jury. He still insisted that the two were also parad jury. He defend Oswald.

He said that he had known Bertrand since 1957 but had not seen him for a couple of

Mr. Andrews was called to testify before the Warren Com-

5-Man Panel in New Orleans were one and the same man.
Mr. Andrews testified that when Mr. Garrison persisted, he met with him at Brennan's Accused by Garrison Restaurant, a French cafe in the French Quarter of New Or-leans. He said that the District Attorney "convinced me" that