

"AMERICAN OPINION" - SEPT. 1967

P. 77 - "COUP D'ETAT - NOV. 22, 1963"

"My conclusion is that anyone who will believe that Lee Harvey Oswald was the lone killer of Jack Kennedy will believe anything."

- MEDFORD EVANS,
CONTRIBUTING EDITOR
& REGULAR CORRESPONDENT FOR "AMERICAN OPINION"

P. 82 - "Maybe he wasn't really a Communist at all. - Maybe Oswald was a Rightist trying to make the Party look bad. Maybe he really worked for the F.B.I. or the C.I.A., and had flipped."

- MEDFORD EVANS

from P. 84 - "Most of the dissent was from the Left - in spite of the fact that the Commission was itself obviously sympathetic to the Left, and had as its first objective to pacify the Left as represented by the Soviet Union and Cuba. There is, however, never any satisfaction of firing at a nominally American target which it could be sure would not vigorously strike back and probably the further advantage of KNOWING that there was a conspiracy to kill Kennedy."

- MEDFORD EVANS

from P. 87 - "Evidence exists - not conclusive evidence such as would justify a positive statement - THE POSITION OF THE PRESIDENT'S BODY, TOGETHER WITH THE WOUNDS IN HIS SKULL, MEANS THAT THE TRAJECTORY OF THE LETHAL BULLET WAS NEARLY HORIZONTAL - but probative evidence, demanding that one inquire further into this startling possibility."

- MEDFORD EVANS

from P. 99 - "When you say Dallas killed Kennedy you are saying New York did it. Not all of New York, of course. Just the people who run it. They are the same people that run Dallas. They are the people that just about run the country. This country. Of course they run several other countries, much more completely. Venezuela, for example. Arab States."
