

APPEARS BEFORE GRAND JURY: Marina Oswald Porter, widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, with her husband, Kenneth, on the way to testify before a New Orleans grand jury. The grand jury, at the request of Jim Garrison, New Orleans District Attorney, is investigating an alleged conspiracy in the assassination of President Kennedy.

Oswald's Widow Tells a Jury

made her appear to be shorter than her 5 feet 2 inches. She is wearing a dark blue semimini dress, the hem about three inches above her knees, and light blue rain coat. The offess had red and yellow piping on the collar and sleeves.

An aide to Mr. Garrison said Mrs. Porter's appearance be-

Mrs. Porter was accompanied to the grand jury by her husband, Kenneth J. Porter, a allas tavern operator, and Sheriff Louis A. Heyd Jr.

"They just wandered in the courthouse, asking where to and I am showing them,"

Mrs. Porter was before the and jury for about 10 min-les in the morning, and then of the to return for detailed ques-

Mrs. Porter's trip to New Orleans to appear before the and jury was in marked contest to her residence here om May 11 to Sept. 23, 1963. It that time, she and Oswald led in a slum, and she was everal months pregnant.

While working as an oiler on coffee processing machine, wald barely made enough slary to buy food and to pay the rent on their tiny apartment. He spent much of his free time that summer handing the leaflets on New Orleans streets urging "fair play" for streets urging "fair play" for the Castro regime in Cuba.

the Castro regime in Cuba.

On the current trip, Mrs.
Porter and her husband were lodged in a tourist motel near the Criminal Courts building.

Mr. Garrison has charged that Oswald plotted with Clay L. Shaw, 55, retired New Orleans businessman to assassinate President Kennedy. One of Mr. Garrison's assistants said the District Attorney wanted to find out if Mrs. Porter had known Mr. Shaw, who was indicted

Mr. Shaw, who was indicted last March on a conspiracy last March on a conspiracy charge in the assassination, was scheduled to go on trial Monday. However, his attorneys asked this week that the trial be moved from New Orleans. A hearing on the motion will be held March 5.

Mr. Garrison has said that his theory of the assassination is that President Kennedy was murdered by former employes of the Central Intelligence Agency who had been trained to lead an invasion of Cuba. When the invasion was ordered stopped by President Kennedy BV MARTIN WALDRON
Special to The New York Times

NEW ORLEANS, Feb.
8—Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter, widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, assassin of President Kennedy, testified today before a New Orleans grand jury about the four months during which shelived in near penury with Oswald in New Orleans in the summer of 1963.

District Attorney Jim Gardron contends Oswald spent he four months helping put to the four months helping put to the grand jury, she shook her head when a sassassination.

Mrs. Porter, a short and trim year-old blonde with frosty the eyes, declined to comment she twice ran a vanguard television cameras to enter e grand jury room in the hate old Criminal Courts lilding.

Her heel-less black shoes de her appear to be shorted in her 5 feet.