DULLES SUBPOENAED IN GARRISON INQUIRY

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 16 (AP)—Allen W. Dulles, former Director of Central Intelligence, was subpoenaed today to appear before the Orleans Parish (County) grand jury inquiring into the assassination of President Kennedy.

The subpoena issued by District Attorney Jim Garrison orders Mr. Dulles to appear in New Orleans March 7-8. Mr. Garrison said his office "has succeeded in identifying the assassination of President Kennedy as an operation conducted by elements of the C.I.A.," and that Mr. Dulles was needed to testify about C.I.A. activities.

The request for the subpoena says that as C.I.A. director prior to Sept. 27, 1961, Mr. Dulles "would have pertinent knowledge as to substantial reports that Lee Harvey Oswald was an agent and-or an employe of the C.I.A."

The Warren Commission named Oswald as the lone slayer of Mr. Kennedy, while Mr. Garrison contends that the assassination was the result of a conspiracy centered in New Orleans.

The request also says that the late David W. Ferrie, named by Mr. Garrison as a co-conspirator, was an employe of the C.I.A. during the time Mr. Dulles was director.

Mr. Garrison said that possible information relative to C.I.A. knowledge or contact with Oswald was suppressed in certain Warren Commission documents.
