John E. Jackson and Maurice Grundy.

Mrs. Ochsner was active in civic, religious and social circles. In 1965 she was chosen the state's Mother of the Year by the women's auxiliary of the Chamber of Commerce of the New Orleans Area.

At the time Mrs. Ochsner was chosen in line with the criteria set up by the committee for naming the Mother of the Year. The qualifications were for having children over 15 years of age, being active in civic and church work and both she and her children having "fine records of achievement."

She was a past president of the Orleans Club and a member of the board of the Home for Incurables.

SHE WAS a native of Chicago, Ill., and a graduate of the University of Illinois.

Mrs. Ochsner is survived by her husband; three sons; her daughter, Mrs. E. Allen Davis, and 17 grandchildren.
