

Marines Lost in Ocean Crash Are Identified

5-1-75
SF
Chen

Washington

The Marine Corps yesterday identified the two officers missing in the crash Tuesday of their helicopter near the carrier Hancock in the South China Sea during the evacuation from South Vietnam.

They are Captain William Craig Nystul, of Coronado, Calif., and First Lieutenant Michael John Shea of El Paso, Tex.

Two marine enlisted men who also were aboard the helicopter were rescued, the marine Corps said.

Associated Press