Suit Seeks to Block Adoptions⁵ Of Many Vietnamese Children

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30 children had been living in an (AP)—A class action suit filed orphanage for only a few days in Federal court is seeking to before they were "abducted" block adoption of Vietnamese and transported to this country.

were flown here were not or- Welfare.

United States District Court a Vietnamese who worked as yesterday asks that adoptions a nurse in Vietnam, who went be delayed until consent is obto the San Francisco Presidio tained from the children's when doctors, nurses and interparents or relatives, or it is preters were needed to handle determined they cannot be the flood of children here.

children brought here during Operation Babylift.

The suit alleges that many hundreds of the children who have were not on the children who have the child The defendants include Se-

Representing the children in The class action, filed in the suit is Muoi McConnell,

The suit says the real purpose The suit was brought on be- of the program was to create The suit was brought on behalf of two sisters and a brother, ages 3 to 7, who, the suit contends, were brought here without the consent of their parents. The court was told that the gress for military support.