4 Americans Held on Base

To Face Charges by Thais

BANGKOK, Thailand, June 13 (AP)—A United States Army provost marshal and three military policemen are in army custody at a base in northeastern Thailand pending disposition of Thai charges that they assaulted and illegally held a former Thai employe of the enlisted men's club on the base.

United States military authorities said that no date had been set for a trial. Few American servicemen ever come to trial in Thai courts because most cases are settled out of court.

The authorities said that the four men had been assigned temporarily to nonmilitary-police duties at Ramasun Station, a secret "radio research" facility 250 miles northeast of Bangkok and that their passes to leave the base had been lifted.

The four, Capt. Ronald P. Face of Leesville, La.; Sgt. I.C. Ralph I. Faulkner; Sgt. Wayne Cooper of Cranford, N. J., and Sgt. Cecil A. Jolly Jr. of Texas City, Tex., were arrested Feb. 3 in connection with an incident that took place Jan. 27.
