Two More G.I's Charged With Murders at Songmy

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8—Two soldiers who were scheduled to leave the Army next week were charged with murder and other offenses today in connection with the alleged killing of civilians in Songmy, Vietnam, on March 16, 1968.

The men are Pvt. Gerald Anthony Smith, 22 years old, stationed at Fort Riley, Kan., and Sgt. Charles E. Hutto, 21, an infantry training instructor at Fort Lewis, Wash.

Private Smith is charged with premeditated murder and indecent assault on a Vietnamese female. The Army defines indecent assault as "the taking by a man of indecent, lewd, or lascivious liberties with the person of a female not his wife without her consent and against her will, with intent to gratify his lust or sexual desires."

Sergeant Hutto is charged with premeditated murder, rape and assault with intent to commit murder, the Army said.

4 Have Been Charged

The charges bring to four the number of soldiers who are accused of committing crimes in connection with the Songmy incident. The charges filed today were the first to involve rape and assault.

None of the eyewitnesses' reports that have so far been made public have included any suggestion of offenses beyond the allegations of excessive violencé and killing at Songmy.

The Army declined to elaborate on the new charges or to say how many victims were allegedly involved.

"Charges involve offenses allegedly committed against Vietnamese at Mylai," the Army announcement said. Mylai 4, the scene of the alleged killings, is a hamlet in the Songmy village complex.

Continued on Page 3, Column 3

Army spokesmen said that the maximum punishment for rape under military law was confinement at hard labor for 20 years, while indecent assault carried a maximum punishment of five years.

carried a maximum punishment held over for the same reason. of five years.

Both soldiers now face a military investigation somewhat lawyers to defend Sergeant similar to a civilian grand jury Hutto and Private Smith. proceeding. If the Fort Riley At Fort Lewis, a spok legedly committed at Songmy. with newsmen.

Lieutenant Calley has been Sergeant charged with the murder of Brenda, reached by telephone at their home on Fort Lewis, said, "I'm sorry, we can't say decision to court-martial them."

Sergeant Hutto's wife, Brenda, reached by telephone at their home on Fort Lewis, said, "I'm sorry, we can't say mythes." decision to court-martial them decision to court-martial them followed the same kind of in-ried and has one child, will be vestigation that was ordered represented by Capt. Delmar Sergeant Hutto.

that the timing of the Army's live in Chicago, according to lated to leave the Army next

The move insures that the Army will have jurisdiction over the men. They will be involuntarily retained in the service "until charges are disposed of," an Army spokesman said. Lieutenant Calley is also being

Lawyers Are Appointed

The Army appointed military

At Fort Lewis, a spokesman and Fort Lewis commanding said that Sergeant Hutto held a generals decide that the investigations support the charges, noon with his counsel, Capt. Courts-martial will be ordered. Neil C. Buren, a former deputy If so, the men will join Lieut. prosecuting attorney in Seattle. William L. Calley Jr., of Fort He said that Captain Buren, Benning, Ga., and S. Sgt. David who was not available for com-Mitchell, of Fort Hood, Tex., ment, had advised Sergeant in facing trials for offenses al-Hutto not to discuss the case today for Private Smith and Gowing, of the staff judge advocate's office at Fort Riley. Pentagon sources indicated Private Smith's wife and child announcement was affected by the Army. At his request, the formation about his family. Sergeant Hutto's parents, M and Mrs. Lenzy Hutto, live in Tallulah, a northeast Louisiana community of about 10,000 population, not far from the Mississippi.

Hutto's

Although both men joined the Army the same day, Jan. 13, 1967, there is a difference of three grades in their ranks. Army officials conceded that it was unusual for a soldier to remain a private for three years but refused to discuss Private Smith's Army record. A military regulation forbidding "comments bearing on the conduct or impinging on the character" of a soldier under charge was cited.

Neither Sergeant Hutto nor Private Smith is under confine-Private Smith is on duty status as a rifleman and assistant machine-gunner in Company A, Second Battalion, 21st Infantry, 24th Infantry Division, at Fort Riley.

Sergeant Hutto is assigned to Headquarters Company, Third Advanced Individual Training Brigade, Fort Lewis, where his duties involve arranging and preparing classes for soldiers undergoing infantry training.