Court-Martial of Calley Postponed Indefinitely

FORT BENNING, Ga., Aug. 14 His hearing will be open to the (UPI) — The court-martial of public. First Lieut. William L. Calley So far, the Army has ordered Jr., charged with murdering 102 hip online onlined. Vietnamese civilians at Mylai, nine enlisted men accused of in 1968, was postponed indefinitely today. initely today.

that no further hearings would be scheduled until "actions now found guilty.

Light that the only one listed that the only one listed as a capital case, meaning he could be sentenced to death if pending in Federal Courts" were resolved.

tenant, first of 12 officers and men charged in the alleged massacre, had been scheduled for Aug. 24. He will be in a military court that day, but it will be to ask for disclosure of will be to ask for disclosure of certain documents and papers dealing with the alleged slaughter. Lieut. Col. Reid W. Kennedy, the trial judge, will hear the defense motion.

Meanwile, a military spokesman at Fort McPherson, near Atlanta, announced that a hearing would be resumed next Tuesday for Pvt. Gerald A. Smith of Chicago, a member of Lieutenant Calley's platoon who is also charged with murder.

The Calley hearing will be closed to the public at the re- gation of the alleged Mylai quest of George Latimer, the massacre. civilian defense counsel, and Maj. Kenneth Raby, representing the Army.

Civil Trials Sought

accussed in the Mylai case, has Point, Lieut. Col. William D. filed suit in Federal Court in Guinn and Maj. Frederick W. Washington, seeking to keep Watke. military officials barred from In ac trying Lieutenant Calley.

three-judge panel in Atlanta start next week. was dismissed. The panel contended that the accused soldiers cers originally accused of derehad the right of appeal to liction of duty and other charges civilian courts after exhausting growing out of the field investimilitary remedies.

with premeditated murder and listed men were charged with indecent assault upon a female. the actual crime.

court-martial but Lieutenant An Army spokesman said Calley's is the only one listed

Lieutenant Calley led a platoon in a sweep for suspected

He was first scheduled for court-martal on May 18 but the date was set back untl August to permit both defense and prosecution to prepare their

Other Inquiries Begun

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (AP) -The Army announced today the start of grand jury type investigations involving Maj. Gen. Samuel W. Koster and two other officers accused of dereliction of duty in a field investi-

The investigations, closed to the public and press were started yesterday at Fort Meade, Md. They will determine if courts-martial are warranted Mr. Latimer, as have attor-neys for several other soldiers mer superintendant of West

In addition, the Army said the investigations of charges A similar appeal before a against four other officers will

The seven are among 14 offigation of the alleged massacre. Private Smith, 22, was charged Twelve other officers and en-