Meadlo Says He Feared Mylai Babies Held Grenades

By HOMER BIGART

"Were you afraid the babies do so by Lieutenant Calley. might attack you?" the Army prosecutor, Capt. Aubrey M. Lieutenant Calley's order control of the con Daniel 3d, asked today.

Attack Feared

"Yes," Mr. Meadlo replied.

But, the witness said, one pull on a string or a chain and blow us up."

He said he had shot "a few' babies during a mass execution Mr. Meadlo said. of 30 to 40 men, women and children inside the hamlet and later "a few" more babies during the shooting of 75 to 100 ness for the Government, tes-unarmed and unresisting tified only because "I'd be civilians at a ditch outside.

"What were the mothers doing?" the prosecutor asked. munity by the Justice Depart-"They were just squatting ment, and there were Federal there," Mr. Meadlo said.

"What were. the babies doing?"

"They were their mothers' arms."

for premeditated murder in the day he said he felt assured of slaying of at least 102 civilians the correctness of t he action at Mylai.

FORT BENNING, Ga., Jan. 12
—Former Pfc. Paul D. Meadlo testified today at the courtmartial of First Lieut. William L. Calley Jr. that he had shot some babies in their mothers arms at Mylai because he was afraid the babies might be carrying concealed grenades.

Instructed at Schofield Bardina, the commander of Charlie Company, Task Force Barker, Americal Division, walk past a group of bodies without any of displeasure.

Instructed at Schofield Bardina, the commander of Charlie Company, Task Force Barker, Commander of the task force, or some other superior officer landed briefly at Mylai during the action and gave no orders to stop the shooting.

Instructed at Schofield Bardina, the commander of Charlie Company, Task Force Barker, Commander of the task force, or some other superior officer landed briefly at Mylai during the action and gave no orders to stop the shooting.

Instructed at Schofield Bardina, the commander of Charlie Company, Task Force Barker, Americal Division, walk past a group of bodies without any of displeasure.

Instructed at Schofield Bardina, the commander of Charlie Company, Task Force Barker, Commander of the task force, or some other superior officer landed briefly at Mylai during the action and gave no orders to stop the shooting.

Instructed at Schofield Bardina, the commander of Charlie Company, Task Force Barker, Commander of the task force, or some other superior officer landed briefly at Mylai during the action and gave no orders to stop the shooting.

Instructed at Schofield Bardina, the commander of Charlie Company, Task Force Barker, Americal Division, walk past a group of bodies without any of displeasure.

Instructed at Schofield Bardina, the commander of Charlie Company, Task Force Barker, Americal Division, walk past a group of bodies without any orders and a group of bodies without any orders are superior of displeasure.

Instructed at Schofield Barker, Commander of the task force, or some other superior of displeasure.

Instructed at Schofield Barker, Americal Division, walk

women and children, during an Mr. Meadlo said he had American attack on the hamlet opened fire on the noncombatants only when ordered to wery on a fraid the babies do so by Lieutenant Calley.

Medina told the troops on the eve of the Mylai action that Moss, 24 years old, of Spartan-burg, S. C., recalled Captain lage should be "destroyed."

Medina's briefing. He said the

Lieutenant Calley's order conflicted with standard procevilians. Exploring Mr. Meadlo's enant Calley's order?"

"Because nobody really wants to take a human being's life," Street in Queens.

Reluctant Witness

throwed in jail if I didn't." He had been given testimonial immarshals standing by to arrest him if he refused to testify.

He insisted yesterday that Lieutenant Calley was only "doing his job, doing his duty Lieutenant Calley is on trial in shooting the civilians. To when he saw Lieutenant Cal-

Mr. Meadlo said he had been ley's superior, Capt. Ernest Me-support to the defense contenwith them. around and didn't put a stop However, he said, the action to it," Mr. Meadlo said.

Mistrial Sought

Captain Daniel challenged Mr. Meadlo so vigorously this point that the chief de-"It ain't for me to figure out fense counsel, George W. Lati-"Yes," Mr. Meadlo replied.
"Any baby might have been loaded with grenades that the mother could have throwed."
"Were they making any move to attack?"
"Not at that time, no."

It and to find to fighte out lense counsel, George W. Lauther, Geo

Mr. Capezza, who was a ment spokesman said. Mr. Hoff-medical corpsman in Charlie man is appealing his conviction Company on the day of the in the "Chicago 7" riot con-Mr. Meadlo, a reluctant wit- Mylai incident, gave partial spiracy trial.

Mr. Meadlo testified yester-day that he and Lieutenant Calley killed as many as 140 terpreted "destroy" to mean South Vietnamese, mostly killing all people and animals.

Nowever, ne said, the action to it, Mr. Meadlo said.

The defense has tried to shift responsibility from Lieutenant Calley to Captain Medina. An officer emerged, and Captain Medina saluted. Mr. Capezza could identify Meadlo said today that Captain neither the officer and cap

Medina's briefing. He said the captain had ordered the troops to burn Mylai, pollute the wells and kill the inhabitants.

Canada Bars Abbie Hoffman

After Mr. Meadlo's tseti-ance. Mr. Hoffman, who was to But, the witness said, one never knew when some mother or child might "give one little null on a string or a chain and afraid of carrying out Lieut-the calling of Nicholas Capez-section of the immigration for the calling of Nicholas Capez-section of the immigration for a string or a chain and za, a New York City housing that prohibits the entry of any patrolman, of 105-18 80th one convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, a Govern-