Calley, in Interview, Says He Hopes That

Terms Assault on Hamlet 'Not an Isolated Incident'

The following is an inter-most publicized in modern warview with First Lieut. William fare, the lieutenant said:

L. Calley Jr. by Kathryn John"No one has yet tried to L. Calley Jr. by Kathryn Johnson of The Associated Press. analyze the problems, to my The lieutenant was interviewed knowledge, that caused not while a military jury deliber- only Mylai, but the war in Vietated on the charges: the dis- nam itself. patch was to be released after the verdict.

FORT BENNING, Ga., March 29 (AP)—"I hope Mylai isn't bring the meaning of war to the surface not only to our nation but to all nations. even for people who say war tion but to all nations. is hell," said First Lieut. William L. Calley Jr., who was convicted today of the pre-meditated murder of 22 Viet-Asked to describe how he felt namese civilians.

'What War Is'

cer was a fledging second lieu- working on it. I hope it will be tenant when he led his infantry out by September." platoon in an assault on Mylai so unique, it was a small trag-Communism, we definitely need edy in a small place, but for an Army."

once, man was able to see all the hells of war all at once."
"I can't say. I am proud of every being in Mylai, or every being in war. But I will throughout the world and has be extracted to the support of such ground." be extremely proud if Mylai had the support of such groups shows the world what war is as the American Legion, Gold and that the world needs to Star Mothers and prisoner of do something about stopping war organizations.

wars."

"Many people say war is hell who have never experienced it," Lieutenant Calley added, "but it is more than hell for those "We owe these people a lot afford to forget" it is more than hell for those people tied up in it."

United States history and the makes me a P.O.W., too."

Meaning of War'

Asked to describe how he felt about his trial, during which he "Mylai has happend in every listened to several witnesses war," he continued. "It's not testify that he ordered screaman isolated incident, even in ing old men, women and chil-dren herded into a ditch and shot, Lieutenant Calley replied: "It's not simple what I feel. The slight, 27-year-old offi- It will take a book to say. I'm Even if convicted, he said, "I 4, a hamlet in the South Viet-namese village of Sonmy on March 16, 1968. In the interview, he said:

Level II convicted, he said, a still feel strongly about the Army." The Lieutenant said the United States "needs a strong Army," and added: "From Army," and Army, a view, he said: strong Army," and added: "From what I've seen of the world and people tied up in it."

Commenting on his fourmonth trial, the longest in

TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 1971

Mylai 'Shows the World What War Is'