

Cuban refugee, Parkland Hospital

" ... one of these Cuban refugees was extorting money from some other Cubans, was making false promises to the Cubans, was a disruptive influence in the Cuban community and was considered by Father McChann to be a 'political Cuban' rather than a Cuban who was interested in receiving any assistance from the Committee. He could not recall the name of this Cuban but he believes the Cuban is still employed at Parkland Hospital."

Letter from James J. Rowley, Secret Service, to J. Lee Rankin,
May 5, 1964; report of interview by Inspector Kelley of Rev. Walter J. McChann, April 30, 1964.

XXVI 402

"How provocative is the suggestion that this extortionist and 'disruptive influence in the Cuban community', this 'political Cuban', was an employee at the Parkland Hospital! Might he, for example, have planted that bullet 399 that was traced to nothing except the Mannlicher-Carcano ... ?"

Weisberg, Whitewash II, p. 67

Was this Cuban in Parkland employment 22 Nov 63?
