

MISCELLANEOUS

Bullets, Tippit

Oswald, six bullets in revolver, five in pocket
III 460 - testimony, Cortlandt Cunningham
CE 145

5th amendment

Robert A. Surrey, printer of Wanted for Treason poster.
Did any other witnesses invoke 5th amendment?
V, 421 ff

Carcano C2766

Would post office have required a receipt from Oswald when rifle turned over to him? If so, is there such a receipt?
Check testimony, Harry D. Holmes, P.O. inspector,
VII, 289, 525

Rifle was shipped parcel post.
R, 119/4

→ No, and no identification required (Holmes testimony, VII 528; R, 121/1).

~~Ammunition~~

~~No bullets for rifle or pistol listed in pox inventory, after search of Paine house, garage, and Oswald's room.
CE-2003~~

Smell of gunpowder

As JFK car made turn for freeway, smell of gunpowder reached back to third car in procession.
Narrator, BBC, The Day the President Died (tape, at 317 ft.)

Time, 12:29

James T. Tague heard shots and noted time on Hertz clock.
VII, 555, Tague testimony