

Wounds, Kennedy

Check autopsy and medical reports for lung damage.
"Then one of the doctors noticed a frothing of blood in the neck wound. 'He's bubbling air,' the doctor said. This means a hole in the lung." (Chronicle, UPI, Bryce Miller, Dallas, Nov. 30, 1963.)