

SENATE VOTES EXTENSION OF OIL COMPACT AFTER KENNEDY GETS VOW ON IMPORTS

By William M. Blair

Washington, Oct. 13 - The Senate approved today extension of the interstate compact to conserve oil and gas. The approval came after Senator Edward M. Kennedy extracted promises that the appropriate Senate committee would consider his idea that Congress assume veto power over the oil import system...

Major oil companies have opposed abolishment of the quota program....

Complete story filed EMK (a)