

FULL PULLOUT IN '72 ASKED BY KENNEDY

by Fred Ferretti

Senator Edward M. Kennedy urged yesterday that the United States announce "an irrevocable decision" to withdraw ground combat forces from Vietnam within a year and air and support units no later than the end of 1972.

.....

The Kennedy proposal was greeted with cheers at the observance of Moratorium Day by the World Affairs Council in Boston, but Senator Kennedy's 1972 date was received in silence.

.....

(Clipping filed EMK [a].)