Here's the book making the headlines.

New Book Says Mary Jo Drove Car Off Bridge

—Boston Globe

—New York Times

Was Mary Jo Alone in Kennedy's Auto?

—Chicago American

New Theory Advanced in Death of Secretary in Kennedy's Car

—Los Angeles Times

A precise account of the hour-by-hour, day-by-day events of the accident, The Bridge at Chappaquiddick reads like an ingeniously plotted detective story. Written by a senior editor at Sports Illustrated, it exposes in breathtaking detail the whole shocking episode, adding a closely reasoned reconstruction of what may actually have happened on the night of July 18-19. The final chapter, "The Trap," offers an explanation that is as new and startling as it is plausible. Not since In Cold Blood has a work of creative reporting scaled such heights of human drama as The Bridge at Chappaquiddick. $6.95 at bookstores now.

Little, Brown
