

KENNEDY CHARGE ON NIXON TACTICS

Baltimore - Senator Edward M. Kennedy charged last night that the Nixon Administration deliberately waited to widen the war in southeast Asia until after public protests over American involvement in Vietnam had begun to subside.

.....

His statements, in a speech at Johns Hopkins University, were among the strongest on the Cambodian situation [no continuation of sentence]

Times-Post Service

(Clipping filed EMK [a].)