Kopeczne Case Figure
Loses Re-Election Bid

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 4 (AP) — Duker County District Attorney Edmund Dinis, who ordered and conducted the inquest into the death of Mary Jo Kopeczne last January, was defeated for re-election yesterday, which Mr. Dinis said he had expected.

Philip A. Rollins, a Falmouth lawyer, piled up a lead of 98,841 to 88,222 in incomplete but conclusive returns.

Edgartown, which includes the area where Miss Kopeczne was killed in July, 1969, when a car driven by Senator Edward M. Kennedy plunged off a bridge, won for Mr. Rollins 480 to 194.
