

Colson Confirms Backing Kennedy Inquiry but Denies Knowing of Hunt's C.I.A. Aid

by Marjorie Hunter

[Story on testimony by Charles W. Colson before House Armed Services subcommittee investigating C.I.A. involvement in the Watergate burglary. At the same time his deposition in a suit by the Democratic National Committee, given 28 May 73, was released on being filed in Federal Court.]

Washington, June 29 -

.....

[The investigation by Howard Hunt of Senator Edward Kennedy and the death of Mary Jo Kopechne, Colson] said, was Hunt's idea. He said that in July, 1971, one of Hunt's public relations associates got a telephone call from "someone in Massachusetts" with unpublished information about the drowning of Mary Jo Kopechne in Senator Kennedy's automobile on Chappaquiddick Island in August [sic - date was 18 Jul] 1969.

"Mr. Hunt asked me if I would like to have him try to get that information and I said, 'Certainly,'" Mr. Colson testified.

.....

(Earlier in the story, writer says Hunt testified 28 Jun 73 that Colson had authorized him to interview a "Clifton Demotte.")