

The National Enquirer today quotes Mrs. Rose Kennedy as saying pressures may force her only surviving son, Massachusetts Senator Edward Kennedy, to run for President this year.

Mrs. Kennedy reportedly told the newspaper, "He promised me - he promised me faithfully - that he would not run. I told him that I did not want to see him die too, that I could not stand another tragedy like the deaths of his brothers John and Bobby."

[Complete.]