

5 Other Victims of Shooting Improving

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Five bystanders hurt in the shooting that killed Sen. Kennedy were in improved condition today.

One was scheduled to go home later today. He is Ira Goldstein of Encino, hit by a bullet in the left hip. Encino Hospital spokesmen said he is doing "very well."

Paul Schrade, 30, regional director for the United Auto Workers, is reported in "pretty good shape" by Kaiser Foundation Hospital nurses who said he is conscious and coherent.

William Weisel, 30, a newsman for the American Broadcasting Co., is in satisfactory condition at Kaiser.

Irwin Siroll, 17, is in good condition at Midway Hospital.

Mrs. Elizabeth Evans had a bullet removed from her scalp and is in satisfactory condition at Huntington Memorial Hospital.
