

Woman Tried To Smuggle Guns Into Jail

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — In the central jail building where Sirhan Bishara Sirhan awaits trial on a charge of murdering Robert F. Kennedy, a woman was arrested last night on suspicion of smuggling guns to a prisoner.

E dy th Grant, 55, was booked after sheriff's officers said they discovered three handguns in a typewriter she was taking to another inmate's cell.

A sheriff's officer said a '22 Derringer pistol, a '32-caliber revolver and a 635 automatic were found.

The typewriter had been authorized for the prisoner, quartered on a separate wing from Sirhan's isolated cell, the officer said, and it was that prisoner, not Sirhan, to whom she was suspected of smuggling the guns.
