

In [the article] the first installment of a series in Look magazine ...
AP, 28 Oct 68

[Huie] said the first of two articles he has written for Look magazine ...
SFExaminer, 28 Oct 68

The article .. which will be continued in the next issue ...
NYTimes, 29 Oct 68

[The article] was the first of a series.
AP, 4 Nov 68

The second of five articles that Mr. Huie wrote for Look is scheduled to appear on Tuesday [12 Nov].*
NYTimes, 11 Nov 68

(dated 12 Nov)

Note at end of first installment/announces continuation in the next issue of Look.

From story by AP, following publication of first installment: "A committee of lawyers [named to watch over pre-trial publicity, reported to Judge Battle, 4 Nov] that .. Huie and the publishers of Look magazine probably are in contempt of court because of [the article]."
AP, 4 Nov 68

Note at end of second installment*says, "In a future issue, .. Huie plans to tell in detail the personal story that may not be developed at the trial - [Ray's] activities between March 23 [where second installment ended] and the day he was arrested in London." This suggests that next article will not appear until after the trial.
There was none in the following issue, 10 Dec 68.

*Magazine actually dated 26 Nov; probably was available 12 Nov. Ray's trial had been scheduled for 12 Nov.