

S.F. Chronicle - 7/28/70

Bail for Ray In Shooting

Savannah, Ga.

Jerry Ray, whose brother was imprisoned for the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., was released from jail on $5000 bond yesterday after he was charged with aggravated assault in the shooting of a white teenager.

Ray, 32, was charged in the shooting of Stephen Don Smith, 17, of Athens, Ga., at the headquarters of the white supremacist National States Rights party in Savannah.

Associated Press