Mrs. Mitchell Unhappy

Washington, Feb. 15 (UPI) - Mrs. John N. Mitchell said today that she was "very unhappy" her husband had resigned as Attorney General. Between sobs she said, "I think it is a very bad move."

"It just breaks my heart," she said. "It just breaks my heart." She said that Mr. Mitchell had been perhaps "the greatest Attorney General the country ever had."

She was not as complimentary toward his successor - Deputy Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst.

"I don't have any views on Kleindienst," she said.
