

Kleindienst blocked another federal anti-trust action

by Jack Anderson

(Column deals with Warner-Lambert Pharmaceutical and with Elmer Bobst of that company, "[who] has said he has always regarded the President as a son. Nixon maintains that he has looked upon Bobst as a father."